Postmaster Dimmick's Quarterly Report Shows Slight Increase Over Receipts

Postmaster C. H. Dimmick's quarter ly report, ending Dec. 31st, shows re-ceipts amounting to $6,376.77. The re-ceipts for the year 1907 for the corres-ponding quarter were $6,302.61, indicating a slight increase. The receipts for the quarter up to Christmas were behind those of last year,but the heavy Christmas business evened things up and the receipts came out ahead of the and the receipts came out ahead of the previous year's receipts.

The sources of receipts were: Stamped paper, $5,164.71; other revenue, $212.06. The expenses for the quarter were $4,502.40, which together with the remittance from the department of $1,873.52 makes $5,275.77. The annual expense of the local office is $17,600, which includes the payroll and the expense of running the office, which is more than the gross receipts of only a decado ago.

a meeting Sunday, the primary object of which will be to decide whether or not they want to continue a team in the Eastern Connecticut Basebail league next season. Last year the venture lost the organization money and there is considerable indecision about maintaining a team this year. If the club decides to put a team in the field to represent Putnam the next point to be considered will be the selection of a manager. There are several candidates or the place. In the event that the anadian club decides to drop out of the league it is practically certain that ome other organization will assume be management of the team and in all ikelihood it will be the newly organzed Putuam Athletic and Social club. from the newly organized city govern-nent and the next annual city meeting ment and the next annual city meeting will probably be called upon to pass on a question that is constantly increasing in importance. Mayor J. J. McGarry and Alderman L. E. Smith, president of the council, have been named by the common council to act with Aldermen Larue, Miner and Dunas as a committee to investigate and report on the conditions and need of this sanitary improvement as they find them. Plans for a sewerage system for them. Plans for a sewerage system for Putnam were made back in Mayor F. H. Perry's administration, but a vote of the cilizens in a city meeting de-feated the proposed improvement.

To Secure Unpaid Taxes, Another matter of public interest to be considered by a special committee of the common council is the collection of unpaid taxes. For several years a considerable number of assessments, amounting in the aggregate to a large sum, remain to be collected. How best to proceed to secure the nav-ment of this money to the city will be onsidered by a commission composed of the mayor and Aldermen Carpenter
